Agassiz's Expedition

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION OF THE DISTINGUISHED SAVANT IN CHILE AND PERU

Valparaiso, Chile, May 14th

The United States Coast Survey steamer Hassler sailed from this port for Callao and Panama yesterday morning having on board Professor and Mrs Agassiz and Ex President Hill of Harvard College. The coming of this distinguished savant has been looked forward to with great expectation and his reception by the authorities and the people has been of the highest degree flattering. He will carry away from Chile not only many specimens in natural history hitherto unclassified and undescribed but also memories of hearty appreciation and admiration. The Professor left the Hassler in Talcahuano and came by land through the great Chile valley to Santiago crossing in his way all the rivers which flow from the Cordilleras to the Sea, from nearly all of which he obtained new species or varieties of fish. While in Santiago he was the recipient of attentions from all the leading men in political and scientific circles. A public reception was tendered him by the Intendente of Santiago which, on account of the state of his health he was compelled to decline

His stay in Santiago was rendered more pleasant from the fact that the Rector of the University and one of the professors (Professor Domeyko and Professor Philippi) were college mates in Paris 40 years ago. Dr Domeyko gave to Professor Agassiz duplicates of his entire collection of fossils by far the most complete and valuable in South America and which he has been 30 years in collecting, so that the museum of Prof Agassiz will have the most complete collection of South American fossils ever made

[illegible] OF AGASSIZ AT LIMA

Lima, May [illegible] 1872. On the 21 inst the United States surveying steamer Hassler anchored in the bay of Callao. On board are a party of distinguished savants presided over by Professor Louis Agassiz. This is now the sensation of the hour. Your correspondent [illegible] well acquainted with [illegible] character must express his [illegible] at the enthusiasm and admiration manifested towards the distinguished guests. The leading newspapers are eloquent in his praise. Many of the most prominent men of Lima [illegible] desire to [illegible] but the retired habits of the Professor [illegible] [illegible] the Hassler has the honor of [illegible] [illegible] disturbing [illegible] Nevertheless [illegible] visit him [illegible] genial manner [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] Agassiz [illegible] the [illegible] specimens [illegible] he was [illegible] of which the [illegible] he had in [illegible] general interest [illegible] Professor [illegible] the [illegible] to be derived from [illegible] a study of [illegible] assumed to the grim severity of the [illegible] the [illegible] that hen [illegible] the [illegible] of her [illegible] the most extreme astonishment and surprise

[illegible] SPECIMENS AND INSTRUMENTS

Great [illegible] casks containing specimens of almost everything that flies, walks or swims in the [illegible] are piled up together [illegible]. After an intelligent looking man was discovered in a most extraordinary position. Seated on a camp stool with a color box before him a live fish in one hand and a camel's hair pencil in the other this individual was [illegible] engaged in depicting the fading hues of the [illegible] on paper before consigning the unfortunate animal to the spirit bottle. A complete photographic apparatus stood close by, ready for use on the appearance of any peculiar phenomenon or striking landscape. Quantities of scientific works and unheard of instruments, the use of which your correspondent was diffident to inquire covered the hatches, coils upon coils of sounding lines littered the decks and even the faces of the scanty crew seemed to possess a degree of wisdom seldom found in men of their class. The example was certainly contagious. It appeared that Captain Wragge, with his manufactured science, would have been a valuable companion for your correspondent. As it was he was obliged to listen and regard with wonder and admiration. Descending into the cosey little cabin the Professor looked up cordially from his writing and welcomed his visitors with such grace that the feelings excited by the appearance of the decks were speedily removed

Mr Agassiz was especially emphatic when speaking of the invaluable assistance afforded him by his associate laborers. Indeed he went so far as to remark that the object of the expedition would be as perfectly accomplished by them even without his co-operation

CORDIAL HOSPITALITIES OFFERED

Henry Meiggs, whose hospitality is proverbial, on learning of the Professor's arrival sent a special messenger on board begging Agassiz and his estimable lady to visit him. The Professor consented to accept the offer but for an unfortunately short period, as the Hassler will probably leave for Panama about the 1st of June

The only point upon which Mr Agassiz appeared disappointed was concerning the vessel itself. He complained that she had deceived them on several occasions, and that her sea going qualities were not of that nature calculated to aid him greatly in his efforts. But at the same time, the excellent officers on board, by their good judgment, had, in a measure, neutralized this defect.—Cor N Y Herald.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates tropical, temperate or frigid it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits

The Fourth of July

This [illegible] the [illegible] celebrate th[illegible] ninety-sixth [illegible] of its indepen dence [illegible] throughout the State there will be a [illegible] pension of business and [illegible] this [illegible] throughout the length and breadth of the land there will be a general observance [illegible] perhaps more general than [illegible] since the time when treason sought to destroy the work begun by the [illegible] of the immortal Declaration and made effectual by the patriotism ability and mutual forbearance of the framers of the Constitution which made us a nation For the Fourth of July is again becoming a national institution in many States from which it has been practically excluded for twelve years [illegible] again becoming an anniversary in the southern section of our country

But the peculiarities of the old fashioned Fourth of July celebration have nearly all vanished They who are old enough to remember the sort of celebrations which were enjoyed say thirty years ago will understand what this means The unchecked enthusiasm over the simplest recital of our marvellous and mainly peaceful progress over traditional harangues against "British tyranny" and the "bloated aristocracies of the Old World, and over the soaring tendencies of our national bird cannot now be revived in its then freshness buoyancy and happy unconsciousness of the terrible evils at the heart of our national life

Since then we have passed through a long and terrible ordeal Imagination has given way to reality The national mind has had growth, discipline, development We no longer live on traditions We live in the presence of great facts, mighty events The discipline through which we have passed has tested our patriotism and made us realize the difference between a mere sentiment and a conviction of duty strong enough to carry us through all sacrifices and perils We learned that before we could be fitted to enjoy and transmit to our posterity the heritage of freedom bequeathed to us by our revolutionary ancestors we must endure as much as they did, and that it was necessary to incorporate the principles of the Declaration into the fundamental law of the land, a thing we had omitted to do. We found that the rights of all men were endangered by the denial of the rights of the humblest race within our limits and were forced to give all rights to all, in order that any of us might enjoy the only guaranty of the rights of any, the maintenance of our national government

We come, then, to our national anniversary in a more solemn, more reflective and less impulsive mood than we were wont to do before the war for nationality was foreshadowed by our distracted political parties. But there is more reason for national rejoicing than there ever was before. Our fathers of the Revolution builded with mixed materials the edifice of our nationality The war disclosed the w[illegible] of the structure, but it also revealed an exhaustless quarry of the most precious and most durable materials, with which the weak places were filled up and the false foundations were replaced. The granite was supplied by an overflowing patriotism, which was ever in excess of all demands or leadership, and the precious stones were furnished in deeds of chivalrous and romantic heroism that will always remain bright and radiant. Our national honor is now firmly built on the bed-rock of equal justice to all men, and every part of the structure is cemented and consecrated by the blood of hundreds of thousands of loyal men Neither the insidious burrowings of domestic treason nor the fier[illegible] storms from without can shake the structure now or prevent its gradual extension until it shall have a continent for its base, and open its wide doors for the secure shelter of the oppressed and unfortunate of all lands.

This is not Fourth-of-July exaggeration and buncombe, but solid fact—palpable to every intelligent man in this country and rapidly becoming known by all the people of the earth We shall celebrate this day with the tranquil assurance and the calm self-faith which belong only to those who have fought the fight and conquered the right to rejoice over a complete victory

Still Very Sore

It is still a puzzle to the Herald how the people of Oregon in the recent election could have pronounced against the party which gave them two years ago those measures of beneficent legislation, the locks bill, the litigant act, the Portland police bill the swamp land act, etc. Our neighbor finds it impossible to believe that a discriminating and generous people would thus vilipend their benefactors Therefore it inclines to the opinion that the election was carried by force and fraud against the will of the people and that the voters of Oregon did mean on election day to declare their unbounded admiration for and undiminished confidence in the party which gave them the litigant bill the swamp land act locks bill etc aforesaid But according to the Herald their voice was overthrown by illegal voting and other forms of fraud In fact our neighbor is positive that "the people of Oregon cast a majority of votes for Burnett, and that the majority Wilson got was obtained by the rascalities practiced in the city of Portland

So confidently had the Ring which has been plundering the State counted on winning the election and prolonging their lease of power and reign of plunder that they are exceedingly wroth about their defeat After a lapse of a month they are still in a petulant and excited mood, unable to become reconciled to the result Their principal organ every now and then breaks out with a new invective or lamentation and altogether the defeated party are quite unhappy In losing their various schemes of plunder they are as unhappy as if they had lost something which of right belonged to them and [illegible] was robbery to take away

It is alleged that Portland [illegible] for them and did it by illegal voting In other words that the Democracy would [illegible] carried the State had there been an honest election in Portland [illegible] The majority [illegible] Multnomah county was [illegible] in Multnomah was [illegible] The [illegible] wants its readers to believe that [illegible] was wholly fraudulent [illegible] the vote in the city [illegible] came off two weeks after [illegible] was held [illegible] says the [illegible] off of the vote in the city [illegible] pared with the vote [illegible] election two [illegible] was [illegible] here exclaims that [illegible] frauds by [illegible]

Of course this [illegible] will [illegible] examination For in the first place the voting precincts in the general election extended far beyond the city limits and included a large number of voters who could not participate in the municipal election Further a large number of voters residing in other parts of the State or being citizens of the State but [illegible] having a residence in the city [illegible] this city for Congressman [illegible] such persons could not [illegible] partially [illegible] and [illegible] number [illegible] No Democratic [illegible] and there [illegible] nothing to call out the masses of Democratic voters [illegible] general ticket to be elected but one Councilman [illegible] Ward It is [illegible] supposed that under these circumstances a full vote would be out as was polled two weeks earlier at the close of an exciting general campaign in which both parties put forth their utmost exertions to get out their last vote under the feeling that the election was one both of State and national importance

As to Multnomah county the Herald's idea that its party could have carried it or that the strength of the two parties in the county on a fair vote is nearly equal is preposterous Ever since the Republican party had an existence this county has steadily given large Republican majorities except in a single instance That instance was in 1868 when under the influence of adverse elections in many other States the prominence of the negro suffrage question and the failure to remove President Johnson by impeachment the county gave a Democratic majority of twenty-one votes for the most popular and able Democrat in the State Five months afterward it gave a large majority for Grant for President The record of elections in Multnomah county for sixteen years proves that the county is strongly and reliably Republican The Herald charges that more votes were thrown in the election than there are voters in the county This assertion is best disposed of by the statement that in 1870 the United States census showed 3,26[illegible] voters in Multnomah county while in the recent election the number thrown was 4 269

The Herald's party was beaten in the recent election partly by its own blind folly and its connection with disreputable jobs that disgusted the people and partly by the natural growth of Republicanism in the State If our neighbor would recognize these facts it would do better than to be continually whining about its defeat and ascribing flimsy excuses for it

When the East Portland Era says that the Democratic party did not oppose the carrying on of the war for the preservation of the Union it would seem to presume greatly on short memories and excessive credulity in its readers It would be better for that party to confess frankly that it opposed the war and as frankly admit that it was in error, than to persist in declarations which its historical record and the memories of millions of living men disprove

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1872

CITY.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—On Tuesday morning a man was discovered seated on one of the old wharves along the river front, in the rear of a wooden building. When seen he had a four barreled pistol in his hand, with the muzzle close to his head. He appeared to be endeavoring to cock the weapon, but was so intoxicated that he did not succeed very well. A friend, who witnessed the action and divined the motives of the man, started off in great haste to procure a police officer. Before he reached the street he met a gentleman coming leisurely towards the wharf. He communicated to the second party what he had witnessed and what from indications would probably be enacted shortly. Gentleman N. [illegible] ran with all speed to where the would be suicide was still seated, and endeavoring to bring the weapon to bear on his head. He attempted to snatch the pistol from the drunken man's hands, but that person seemed too intent for self destruction to give the weapon up without a struggle. A short scuffle ensued, resulting in the pistol being wrenched from the hands of the owner. The attempted self-destructionist was at length induced to return to his house. The pistol was returned to the owner yesterday after he had entirely recovered from the influence of liquor. As the parties are well known in this city we suppress names and localities.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.—The Commencement exercises of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary, took place last evening at the Taylor street Methodist church. A large and intelligent audience was present. The following were the order of exercises: Anthem "O come let us sing unto the Lord; Prayer; Class Song—"Joyful be our numbers;" Essay—The Pacific Coast, John Wilcox; Oration—Our Fallen Heroes, Mary Combs; Solo and Chorus—By request; Oration—The Bible a Book of Facts, W. H. Miesse; Essay and Valedictory—Our Mission, Nannie Taylor; Duet—"Sweet Visions of Childhood;" Presentation of Diplomas and Address to the Graduates; Song—"Nearer Home." We regret that the lateness of the hour and want of space precludes a more extended notice.

PASSENGERS.—The steamship John L. Stephens, which sailed last evening for San Francisco, carried away the following passengers: D Decker, George F. Grant, William Kapus, Joseph Smith, Mrs Clements and daughter, Mrs J R Foster, Miss Maria Every, Mrs L Atkinson, General Tyler, W B Adcock, Lieutenant P T Brodrick, U S A, Rev J Dickson, Rev D K Flickinger, L L McNight, Mrs Mary Lewis, H F Price, William White, Wm Nixon, Mrs H C Cansler, G Ditch, Mrs S D Bristow, Mrs M C White, William O Finley and wife, H D Jessup, Lieutenant W J Rice, U S A; Captain Charles Wheadon, U S A, wife and child; C H Whitfield, W, F & Co's messenger, and 25 in the steerage.

UNDER SENTENCE.—James McAuliff, Sheriff of Walla Walla county, arrived in this city on Tuesday night, having in custody two prisoners for the Territorial prison at Steilacoom: William McAllister, convicted of the murder of Charles Ward, and sentenced for 17 years, and Joseph Pannoyer, convicted of selling liquor to an Indian, and sentenced for two years. The prisoners are now in the county jail, and will not resume their journey until to morrow morning.

QUARTERLY REPORT.—The quarterly report of the Police Judge for the term ending June 30th shows as follows: Arrests for drunk and disorderly conduct, 213; assuming to be an officer, 1; committing a nuisance, 2; indecent exposure, 1; carrying concealed weapon, 4; using vulgar language on the streets, 7; vagrancy, 4; fighting, 2; resisting an officer, 1; fast riding, 1; contempt of court, 1. The amount of fines collected during that time was $1,213 90.

THE FOURTH.—It is needless to inform our readers that another National Anniversary has again dawned on us, and that the people of this city are intending to observe the day with all the customary demonstrations, procession, firing of salutes, literary exercises, oration, and concluding with a grand display of fire works this evening. It will probably be one of the most imposing celebrations ever attempted before in this city.

RETURNED.—A. J. Lawrence, Esq., formerly County Judge of Clarke county, Washington Territory, and a prominent politician on the Democratic side, returned to this city from the Sandwich Islands on the John L. Stephens. We understand that he will remain in Portland and practice his profession. Mr. Lawrence is a criminal lawyer of some ability, and we doubt not will obtain a good practice.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of the Board of Managers, Monday evening, it was decided to hold the anniversary meeting of the Association on Saturday evening, July 14th, in the Taylor street Methodist church. It is expected that the different churches will unite in the meeting and that clergymen and friends from abroad as well as the city pastors will take part.

CUTS.—We have been shown by Mr. L. Samuel, advertising agent, the advance sheets of ten electrotyped cuts, taken from photographed views of scenery along the Columbia river. The cuts are expected to arrive on the next steamer, besides ten additional views taken at different points along the Oregon and California Railroad. The next issue of the Travelers' Guide will contain most of these cuts.

FOR SCOTLAND.—Capt. Whyte, of the ship Forward, is among the passengers who departed on the steamer John L. Stephens last evening. He goes to his old home in Scotland, which he has not visited for over twelve years. Capt. Whyte will be absent about four months, during which time the Forward will remain in port.

POSTAL AFFAIRS.—New Postoffices have been established at Kilchis, Tillamook county; Mt. Hood, Wasco county, Oregon, and at Cha-we-tah, Stevens county, Washington Territory. Drain P. O., Douglas county, Oregon, has been changed to Butler P. O. North Powder P. O., Union county, has been discontinued.

QUARTERLY EXAMINATION.—The County School Superintendent of Washington county, A. J. Anderson, will hold quarterly examination on the first Saturdays in the months of July, October, January and April. The first, on Saturday, of this week, will be held in the school house at Hillsboro.

VACANCY.—In consequence of the failure to qualify of the person who was elected Constable for South Portland Precinct, a vacancy exists in that office. Justice Crich has specially deputized D. Jacobi to fill the place until the County Commissioners will appoint some person to that office.

HELD TO ANSWER.—Mr. S. Bean, first mate of the ship Forward, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Ralph Wilcox on a charge of smuggling opium from China. After an examination of the case the defendant was held to answer in the sum of $500.

LECTURE.—Rev Mr. Anderson, pastor of the M. E. Zion Church, will deliver a lecture at the church, on Third street between B and C, on next Sunday evening, to commence at 7:30 o'clock. His subject will be "Spiritualism."

RAFT.—The Ben Holladay towed up yesterday a large raft of logs from down the river, designed for the mills of this city. All the mills are crowded with orders, and the demand for lumber remains unabated.

EMIGRANTS.—Several families of emigrants, accompanied with droves of horses and cattle, have passed through the city within the last few days. Their destination is Eastern Oregon.

MEXICAN VETERANS.—The members of the Mexican Veterans will meet at the Court House this (Thursday) morning at 9 o'clock to participate in the celebration.

CELEBRATION.—There will be a celebration at Cornelius to-day. Cars will leave Portland at [illegible] A. M. and [illegible] P. M.; leave Cornelius at [illegible] A. M. and [illegible] P. M.

MATINEE.—There will be a matinee at the Fine Theater this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Vivian will appear in some new songs and sketches.

PLANKED.—The space between the Clarendon Hotel and the Steamship Company's office will soon be planked, for the accommodation of the public.

COMMON COUNCIL.

REGULAR MEETING, JULY 3, 1872.

The Common Council met last evening at the Chamber at 8 o'clock, Mayor Wasserman presiding.

Present: Councilmen Besser, Burton, Caywood, Congle, Hallock, Hill, Moreland, Russell, Story.

Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

MAYOR'S ANNUAL MESSAGE.

The Clerk then read the Mayor's message, as follows:

To the Honorable the Common Council—Gentlemen: In the discharge of that part of my duty requiring me to annually communicate to the Common Council, by message, a general statement of the condition of the affairs of the municipal corporation, with such recommendations as may be deemed expedient, I take pleasure in congratulating you upon the continued growth and prosperity of the city during the past year. The many valuable improvements made and enterprises projected, indicate that our citizens have full confidence that as the vast area drained by the Columbia and its tributaries becomes more densely populated, here will be the point where its trade and commerce will centre. In view therefore of the future before us, as a city, we should shape our acts to meet not only its present wants, but those to press upon us in its rapid growth. The finances of the city are in a healthy condition, the bonded debt is $50,000 due in 1881 for the current expenses of the year, including the cost of the new police building and jail, the revenues now collected or provided for are deemed ample. For more full details I refer you to the semi-annual report of the Auditor.

WATER.

During the last year earnest efforts have been made to inaugurate a system for the adequate supply of wholesome water at low rates, to be under the control of the city. To this end the Committee on Fire and Water has been steadily at work, acting under the advice of several of our citizens, now recently their labors have taken a more definite shape. They have called to their assistance a committee of citizens consisting of Messrs. W. S. Ladd, C. H. Lewis, H. Wilson, S. G. Reed and P. C. Schuyler, Jr., the first named acting as president and latter as secretary of the joint committee. W. E. Morris, Esq., an hydraulic engineer of high standing, is now preparing plans and estimates for the committee, who will, at a proper time, lay the result of their investigations before you and the public for final action. In this connection permit me to state that the amendments to the charter in 1870, authorized the Council to submit the question of incurring an indebtedness for water works to the people. To save time, and for other obvious reasons, it is desirable that authority be obtained to submit the question at a special election, to be held for that purpose. If practicable, the votes of taxpayers only should decide a question of this character. Intimately connected with the question of water supply is the question of sewerage. We have long since outgrown the temporary provisions for surface draining, and what is to be done with the surplus water from the adjacent hills and the sewerage in the more settled portions of the city, is a problem that must be solved before permanent street improvements are made or further extended. The powers conferred by the Charter in this respect are inadequate. A comprehensive system for the whole city should be devised, and the authority to carry it into effect applied for.

Our system of street improvements needs thorough revision. Ample as it was to our wants when adopted, and excellent as were its provisions, the work has now assumed such a magnitude that it is an onerous and laborious task upon the proper Committee to attend to the most important duties devolving upon them. To ask them to attend to or supervise the work in detail would be a flagrant disregard of that clause of the Constitution which forbids that "the particular service of any man be demanded without just compensation." I would suggest that the Legislature be requested to amend the Charter so as to provide for an organized Street Department, upon which would devolve the labor of preparing plans and estimates and supervising the work upon the streets and sewers, subject to the control of the Common Council.

The question of the appointment of a Board of Health has recently demanded your attention and appears to me to be a step in the right direction. The fact that we have never been troubled with diseases which, in other parts of the world, have become epidemic, speaks volumes for our salubrious climate. The thorough cleaning and the free use of disinfectants, should be required from those who from carelessness or want of knowledge have allowed unhealthy matter to accumulate upon their premises, as a prevention of malarious diseases.

A few cases of small pox have occurred in this city within the past two months, and have been properly provided for by the Chief of Police, under existing ordinances. I would suggest that a title be procured to sufficient land for the location of a permanent hospital, of which that now occupied might form a part, and that suitable arrangements be made to meet every emergency that may arise.

An annual appropriation of a small sum, if judiciously expended, would soon render our parks and public grounds, places of resort for recreation, and cause them to be a matter of pride to our citizens. I hope the subject will receive proper attention at your hands.

Our Fire Department still maintains its character for efficiency. The erection of wooden buildings within certain limits has been prohibited during the past year, and should be extended from time to time as the growth of our city may demand. In this connection I would suggest that efforts be made to secure the revision of the charter so as to enable the Council to prohibit the erection of buildings of an unsafe character, and make suitable arrangements for safe and speedy egress from rooms and buildings used for public gatherings.

During the last year our city has been remarkably peaceable and quiet, especially when the mixed character of our population is taken into consideration.

The present police system has been on trial for nearly two years, with what success it has met you have had ample opportunities to judge. Our citizens generally demand that the right to a voice in the selection of the heads of Departments be restored to them in their corporate capacity. This done with suitable restrictions to prevent the force from being used for political purposes, the system will work more satisfactory than any other we have yet tried.

PHILIP WASSERMAN, Mayor.

The message was, on motion, referred to a special committee of three, consisting of Councilmen Congle, Hill and Story.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Mayor then announced the standing committees, as follows:

Ways and Means—Hallock, Besser and Congle.

Accounts and Current Expenses—Caywood, Moreland and Hallock.

Fire and Water—Congle, Story and Hill.

Streets and Public Property—Besser, Burton and Russell.

Landings and Wharves—Moreland, Burton and Caywood.

Judiciary—Hill, Russell and Hallock.

FATALLY STABBED

An altercation occurred last evening about half past 8 o'clock at Thompson's Boarding House on Front street between two men named William Wales and Cornelius Gilfoy, in which the former was stabbed and killed by the latter. The origin of this fatal affray was substantially about as follows: A [illegible] about two weeks ago Gilfoy came from Southern Oregon to this city. He went to Mr. Thompson and represented to that gentleman that he was in destitute circumstances and wished to work at anything by which he could pay for his board. Mr Thompson told him that he wanted two waiters, and Gilfoy [illegible] at his house and went on the force [illegible] a [illegible] method. For the last few days Gilfoy had been indulging in liquor pretty freely, and was not in a condition to render much service. [illegible] Mr Thompson [illegible] [illegible] house until after the Fourth. Yesterday some difficulty occurred between Gilfoy and Wales, who was one of the regular waiters at the house. Gilfoy in company with a companion went into one of the rooms up stairs, and took possession of a bed. Some time after, Wales went into the room to make up the bed, and requested that the room be vacated. This Gilfoy refused repeatedly to do, and Wales was finally compelled to use force in ejecting him. This led to a serious difficulty late in the evening and resulted in blows, in which Gilfoy was struck above the right eye by Wales. The blow inflicted an ugly gash and also knocked him down. The altercation took place in front of the boarding house, out on the sidewalk. A short time afterwards, Gilfoy washed the blood away and slipped into the kitchen, where he found a large knife used in carving. Several persons who saw this, cautioned Wales that he had better look out and watch Gilfoy, who was meditating some serious bodily harm, but he remarked that he was not afraid of him, and disregarded the warning. Presently, when he was not observing, Gilfoy slipped around and drove the knife to the hilt in the side of Wales, in the region of the heart. Wales sprang up and staggered a few paces, when becoming suddenly faint from the loss of blood, he sank down on the sidewalk. Before he fell, Gilfoy inflicted several stabs in the side, and after his antagonist fell stabbed him repeatedly in the back. So sudden and unexpectedly was the whole tragical scene enacted, that no one could interfere until assistance was of no avail. Wales did not live but a few minutes after he fell. Gilfoy was arrested immediately and lodged in the city jail, where he is now. The deceased was aged about 27 years and was unmarried. The Coroner was summoned and an inquest held over the remains last evening at a late hour.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATER.—The Fine Theater was well filled last evening again. The same programme of Tuesday evening was reproduced in a manner entirely acceptable. Vivian sang a number of his favorite songs, and gave several of his master sketches, and was repeatedly encored by the audience. He is certainly becoming a great favorite with the public, and he assuredly deserves the high esteem in which he is held. As an artist in his peculiar line, he is unapproachable, and his equal has never yet appeared on this stage. To-day and this evening a rare treat will be offered the public. A splendid and attractive programme will be rendered. Read advertisement.

ALUMNI.—After the exercises by the Academy Graduating Class last night at the Church, a meeting of the teachers and graduates was held and took steps for a regular meeting of the Alumni of the institution next year. S. G. Royal, J. C. Moreland, Fred. Holman, Mattie Groom and Sophie Taylor were appointed a Committee of Arrangements to make all necessary arrangements and prepare a programme for the occasion.

JURY OUT.—At 11 o'clock last evening the jury in the case of the State vs. Wm. Davidson, charged with larceny, came into Court for further instructions and retired again to jury room.

The Career of a Great Remedy.
Twenty summers have elapsed since it was briefly announced that a new vegetable tonic and alterative bearing the name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters had been added to the list of Preventive and Restorative medicines. The modest advertisement which invited attention to the preparation stated that it had been used with great success, especially as a remedy for dyspepsia, bilious complaints and intermittent fever. It was soon discovered that the article possessed extraordinary properties. [illegible]

PROSPECTUS.

THE THROUGH LINE!

A RAILROAD JOURNAL, TO BE PUBLISHED weekly in the city of Portland, Oregon, devoted to the interests of railroads and kindred subjects, and especially to the success of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad.

In the interest of this road we have already made one campaign, whereby, against great odds, our efforts have been crowned with a fair measure of success. It is now a fixed fact, recognized by the Government, and becoming attractive to men of capital and influence.

With the issuance of this prospectus we enter upon a second campaign, in which the friends of the great work will find it profitable to be united, firm and persistent.

We shall early discuss the subject of legitimate and reasonable State aid to the prosecution of the work, and as an endorsement of the importance of this deservedly popular enterprise.

Preparatory to a renewal of our efforts at the next session of Congress, we shall fully discuss the national and local importance of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, and through the instrumentality of The Through Line familiarize members of Congress and the American public with the subject in all its bearings. The discussion will cover the whole ground, and no fact or matter that may be deemed of importance will be allowed to pass unnoticed.

The successful completion of the railroads embraced in the system of the Pacific Northwest, we shall give our hearty support to all that is fair and just, and especially shall we endeavor to keep alive and make useful that public sentiment in Oregon everywhere manifested in behalf of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad.

Our knowledge of the several roads embraced in this system, their origin and progress, the various laws that have been passed concerning them, and the country through which they pass, will enable us to give, from time to time, to the American and European reader reliable and important information connected therewith.

Our friends should be especially vigilant in getting subscribers and giving The Through Line a wide circulation. We have made arrangements for its publication, and shall employ a competent assistant in the Editorial Department. It will be a twenty column paper, and the first number will be issued on or about the 20th of June, inst. Subscription $2 50 per annum.

Amended Stamp Act.

It has been a disputed question whether certain stamp taxes were dispensed in the stamp abolitions, and we have taken the pains to ascertain just how far the abolition extends. The new law reads as follows in this respect:

Sec. 36. That on and after the first day of October, 1872, all the taxes imposed by stamps under and by virtue of schedule B, of section 170 of the act approved June 30, 1864, and the several acts amendatory thereof, be and the same are hereby repealed, excepting only the tax of two cents on bank checks, drafts or orders: Provided, that where any mortgage has been executed and recorded, or may be executed and recorded, before the first day of October, anno Domini 1872 to secure the payment of bonds or obligations that may be made and issued from time to time, and such mortgage not being stamped, all such bonds or obligations so made and issued on or after said first day of October, anno Domini 1872, shall not be subject to any stamp duty, but only such of their bonds or obligations as may have been made and issued before the day last aforesaid: And provided further, that in the meantime the holder of any instrument of writing of whatever kind and description which has been made or issued without being duly stamped or with a defunct stamp, may make application to any Collector of Internal Revenue, and that upon such application such collector shall thereupon affix the stamp provided by such holder upon such instrument of writing as required by law to be put upon the same, and subject to the provisions of section 158 of the Internal Revenue laws.

According to the Internal Revenue circular, soon to be issued, this means abolition in respect of the following instruments that now require stamps, and the reader interested may accept this careful epitome as final:

Trial of Stokes.

On the 27th ult., at New York, at the trial of Stokes for the murder of Fisk, a great crowd of roughs were present and pockets were picked. One dispatch says:

In the Stokes case to-day, Francis Curtiss, of Boston, testified to hearing the pistol shots. Went immediately to the head of the stairs, and found Fisk on the stairs. Heard Fisk ask, "Will any one protect me from this assassin?" Curtis went up to Fisk, asking, "Is this you, Colonel?" Fisk responded, "I am shot." Witness helped him up stairs. Fisk pointed to his arm and abdomen, saying he was shot in those places. Took Fisk to the reception room, and to the saloon lounge. Remained with him and heard all that was said. [Objection was raised as to what was said.] Captain Byrne asked Fisk if Stokes was the man who shot him, and if he recognized him. Fisk answered, "Yes, that is the man who shot me. Take him out."

Thomas Hart, doorman of the Grand Central Hotel, testified that Fisk entered the hotel at five minutes of 4 o'clock on the 6th of January. I saw Fisk coming up stairs. Saw Stokes on the landing, coming along in a stealthy manner, slightly stooping and walking lightly. Stokes walked to the head of the stairs. Heard him say "Now I have got you." He then drew a pistol, and resting his hand on the banister, fired one shot, at which Fisk threw up both hands, exclaiming, "Oh! Oh! Oh! don't," and slid down to the bottom of the stairs. Stokes then turned to the main staircase, and passing witness, said "Somebody has been shot there, who ought to be attended to." Witness replied "Yes, and you are the man who shot him." Witness followed Stokes and saw him throw something away.

Among those present was Mrs. Fisk, wife of the murdered man, who on her way to the Court House was mistaken by a mob for Miss Mansfield and hissed and hooted till she fainted from shame and fear.

Several people had their pockets picked in the great crowd at the trial. Stokes manifested considerable interest in the evidence given.

Ssy.

Sarah Smith stands sorrowfully solus, she sees splendid spruces surrounding shady spots she sees summer's sun shining, she smells sweet savors; sweet songsters singing silvery strains serenade Sarah. Still she sighs. Sunset's soft shades settle silently, still she stands sadly sighing. Suddenly she started. She saw some stranger strolling silently southward. "Stop!" she shouted. "Stop, stranger! Sarah Smith says so!" Stately she stood, sternly she shouted "Stop" Samuel Slocum, successful statesman, smooth speaker, started, saw Sarah, seemed surprised said soliloquizingly, "Strange, seemingly scarce sixteen; so sweet, so simple, still so singularly suspicious! She seems strangely sad." Say something sweeter, Sarah." She, stopping some silent struggle, said, "Surely some stranger seeing sights. Shall Sarah Smith shun such; scarcely." So, strolling silently stranger-ward, she said, "Sarah Smith scorns suspicions scandals, she seeks sympathy, seeks she successfully."

Still shone silvery streams slantingly southward. Samuel Slocum sat sweetly smiling. Sarah Smith sat suspiciously somewhere. Sunset's serene splendor suggested supper Still she sat. She sought sympathy successfully; supper seemed superfluous.

Some six Sundays succeeding she signed some sketches Sarah Smith Slocum. R. R.

Wheat in Liverpool, 12s 2d@12s 4d.

The ship Annie M. Small was towed down the river this morning with a cargo of Wheat for the United Kingdom. She took 31[illegible] centals, or 1,568 tons.

The steamship John L. Stephens sailed this evening, with [illegible] and passengers for San Francisco.

The bark Webfoot sailed for Honolulu for [illegible], with the following freight: 325 bbls and [illegible] sks Flour, 34 bxs Dried Apples, [illegible] sks middlings, [illegible] sks Bran, [illegible] Bacon, [illegible] Lard, [illegible] pkgs household goods, [illegible] machinery. Total value, $[illegible].

On the 8th July the duties on low priced Sugars will be lowered at San Francisco, [illegible] and prices of refined Sugars will be advanced. The refineries, some days ago, stopped taking orders. There is no Hawaiian in first hands in San Francisco and only two small cargoes on the way to that port.

Exports of Wheat.

The San Francisco Bulletin gives a statement of the monthly receipts of Oregon Wheat and Flour in that city for the year ending with the close of the month of June, 1872. The statement is appended below:

RECEIPTS OF OREGON FLOUR AND WHEAT AT SAN FRANCISCO IN 1871-72.

1871-72.	Flour. bbls.	Wheat. centals.	In Wheat. centals.
July	1,87[illegible]	[illegible]	1,[illegible]
August	4,022	1,151	15,917
September	7,272	25,417	47,227
October	7,603	1,671	34,661
November	9,951	48,824	70,674
December	6,078	18,250	47,497
January	24,240	10,887	85,527
February	15,450	2,743	46,127
March	17,814	24,009	57,57[illegible]
April	19,338	29,053	87,367
May	10,802	19,178	59,585
June	12,000	3,301	39,708
Totals	127,804	176,718	560,450
In 1870-71	139,910	43,065	583,116

The foreign countries to which we exported Wheat and Flour during the year ending 30th June were England, Ireland, Sandwich Islands, British Columbia and China. The amount of Wheat and Flour exported to each of the countries named was as follows:

	WHEAT Centals.	Value.	FLOUR Bbls.	Value.	IN WHEAT C'nt'ls
England	137,886	$296,664			137,886
Ireland	30,210	70,805			30,210
Sandwich Isl'ds	20	61	1,085	$6,127	3,286
Br. Columbia	630	1,498	14,783	97,841	55,009
China			3,925	27,475	11,275
Totals	168,786	$369,900	19,793	$131,438	237,185

Total value of Wheat and Flour exported to foreign countries, $500,483.

Add to this the Small's cargo of 31,360 centals, valued at $60,176, which was taken on board during the month of June but cleared since July, 1st, and we have 269,025 centals, valued at $550,659, shipped since July 1st, 1871.

The value of the Wheat and Flour exported to San Francisco will not be quite so high in proportion to amount as that shipped to foreign ports, for the reason that much of that shipped foreign was shipped when prices were high, while much of that transported to San Francisco was shipped after prices began to decline. But putting that shipped to San Francisco at $1 80 ⅌ cental, as an average rate, and we have $1,204,920 as the realized value of our Wheat and Flour shipped to San Francisco during the past year. This, added to the value of that exported foreign, including the cargo of the Small, just dispatched, would give an aggregate of $1,755,532 realized by our State from its Wheat and Flour since the first of last July.

Domestic Produce.

WHEAT—Buyers are virtually out of the market. The stock of old in the country is quite small, and it will be some weeks before new begins to arrive. The tendency in San Francisco is to lower prices. When the market opens here we shall not expect to see more than $1 50 per cental offered.

FLOUR—Market nominal; values unchanged. Standard brands, $5 75; good country, $5 25; common and outside, $4 50 to $4 75 per bbl.

FEED—Tendency of market is in buyers' favor. Bran is quotable at $20@22 50 per ton; Middlings, $35; Chopped Feed $35.

OATS—We have no quotations to offer. Little or nothing is doing in the market. Prospects of the new crop have greatly improved since the recent rains.

LIVE STOCK—Good beef cattle 6c ⅌ lb; Sheep $3 ⅌ head; Hogs 8@9c ⅌ lb.

BACON—Market for Sides is unchanged. A slight upward tendency is noted in Hams. The former quotable at 14c, the latter at 16½@17 ⅌ lb.

WOOL—Market much depressed and buyers cautious. At the East and in California prices are still drooping. Quotations here 35@35c ⅌ lb.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 6, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country:

1. During eleven years of supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with firm hand the resultant disorders of a great war and initiated a wise policy toward the Indians. The Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted; the public lands freely given to actual settlers; immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. A uniform National currency has been provided; repudiation frowned down; the National credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions of the rate of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during General Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, and not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system, by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a lifetenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be adjusted so as to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject, having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of the individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of resorting to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or [illegible] absorbed into the system! It is important to those [illegible] are afflicted, or to those who are interested [illegible] of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from [illegible] and other places.
